

EXPENSES OF U.S. 500 MILLION LESS

Governmental Expenditures Cut by G. O. P. Administration

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 6.—Government expenditures for the present fiscal year will be $500,000,000 less than last year, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Clifford declared tonight in an address here.

For this fiscal year, 1923, "we expect to run the government on less than $3,500,000,000, a reduction of $2,000,000,000 from the cost of the government in 1921, and nearly five million dollars less than in the last fiscal year. Thus it can be seen that the greatest effort possible is being made by the present administration to reduce government expenditures."

"It is going to be necessary to make further reductions owing to the fact that the increase on the post office and sinking fund, relief of veterans of the World war and pensions for veterans of the Civil war total almost one and three-quarter billions a year; that is 50 per cent of our taxes for the present year to pay for these things alone."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Harding and Director Lloyd of the budget, are both confident that government expenses will be considerably nearer $3,000,000,000 than $3,500,000,000, as estimated by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Clifford, administration officials said tonight.

Whether the deficit for the current year, originally estimated at about $800,000,000, will be entirely avoided, official declared, will not be known until the government's books are balanced at the close of business on Dec. 31, 1922, but there is every indication that an approximation of expenditures with receipts will be accomplished.

Mortuary

Stocker.

Mrs. Sarah May Stocker, 32 years old, sister of the May brothers, owners of Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Muskogee and Bartlesville, died early Monday morning at her home in Bartlesville, following a short illness. SPAPULPA, Okla., Nov. 6.—Mandamus proceedings were begun this morning in superior court by the Central Republican committee against the county election board. C. E. Garber, chairman of the committee, was plaintiff and action was brought by County Atty. Ray McElhinney.

The charges were made that some of the four judges, who sat in opposition to the wishes of the committee, have records which unfit them to fill the offices. It is also charged that some of the voting places have not yet been designated, although Tuesday is election day. It is also alleged that Chairman Arthur Odell and Secy. George Jennings have secretly named members of the election boards of the precincts over the protests of W. W. Groom, the only republican member of the board.

those who have not fully recovered from influenza are urged to attend the clinic.

C. E. Coley, local fruit dealer, was held up by two young bandits about 9 o'clock Saturday night and slugged after they found that he had no money in his person. Several suspects were searched for weapons after the holdup was reported to police but none has been identified by Coley.
